ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the parties' Joint Motion for Extension of Expert Disclosure Deadlines in the Scheduling Order. (Doc. 96). The Joint Motion states that “[u]nder the current case schedule, the production of primary expert reports (April 14, 2017) predates the fact discovery cutoff (May 4, 2017),” and thus the parties would like to extend the expert report deadlines. (Id. at 3). However, the Court took this fact under consideration in its September 9, 2016 Order (Doc. 91), when the Court granted an extension of the fact discovery cutoff but clearly articulated that “[a]ll other deadlines shall remain as set forth in this Court's Preliminary Pretrial Order.” (Id. at 1–2).

The Court is reluctant to grant any further extensions in a case that is almost three years old. However, the parties represent that “the requested extensions will not affect any of the other pretrial dates in the case schedule nor will they affect the June 18, 2018 trial date.” (Doc. 96 at 3). Consequently, the Motion for Extension of Expert Disclosure Deadlines (Doc. 96) is GRANTED. The reports of primary experts must be produced by May 26, 2017, and the reports of rebuttal experts must be produced by July 13, 2017. All other deadlines shall remain the same. No further extensions will be granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: March 20, 2017
